

FOLD HERE

I HAVE RETURNED

September 16 is National Unquestioned Borrowed Tool Return Day: the glorious day of homecoming for tools of all shapes and sizes. It may be dirtier and more worn than when last you saw it. But your tool is finally home.

Today is a day of forgiveness. Do not question the returnee for you yourself may be harboring unreturned tools. Instead, prepare a celebration feast (now that you have your grill tongs back).

And remember, return tools unto others as they have been returned unto you.

CUT HERE

